I'm looking for something right now - like a little puff that a lady put on her pussy when she cleans up, and shit like that - soft eyes for me.

I can't stand no loud shit. You dig?

And the bitches come in a place in New York, and them trumpets be screaming and shit. The bitches put their fingers in their ears, you know?

It's got to be sweetness, man, you dig?

Sweetness can be funky, filthy, or anything, but which part do you want? The funkies about it or the sweet?
